About the walk...

This is a short walk not far from the village of Edenbridge. The route follows well used bridleways and there are some good views of the surrounding countryside. Edenbridge was a centre for the Wealden Iron industry and is close to a number of surrounding attractions such as Hever Castle. The Eden Valley museum contains information about the countryside surrounding the village.

Route Description

- 1 From the Wheatsheaf Pub, with the pub on your right, walk along the pavement. Look out for a brideway sign on the left.
- 2 Turn left off the road and follow the surfaced brideway. After passing Smoaky Cottage, turn sharp bends right then left and follow path to Greybury Farm.
- 3 Continue along the brideway to the right of the houses.
- 4 Turn right off the surfaced path and continue through the gate.
- 5 On reaching a junction, turn right.
- 6 On reaching a forked junction take the right hand path and continue uphill and into the woods.
- 7 Follow the waymarker signs to the right.
- 8 On reaching a junction, turn left to follow the waymarking signs and continue downhill.
- 9 Continue straight on at path junction.

Walk Overview

- 10 Continue through a gate and along the field edge after a few metres, bear right into the woods to continue following the fenceline.
- 11 Pass through a gate and continue along the fenceline. Continue ahead, past a gate and pond on your right hand side.
- 12 At the corner of the field, turn left to follow the waymarking arrows along the field edge.
- 13 At the next corner, turn right and continue through the gate. Continue downhill and along the brideway. On reaching a path junction, retrace your steps back to the start of the walk at Marsh Green.
