

High Weald Habitats

Use the boxes to draw or write which different plants and animals you could find in woods, ponds, meadows and heathland. These habitats all exist in the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB)

Now think about how each habitat is used by animals and humans – both today and in the past.

Woods

Historical use in the High Weald:

Today's Use:

Ponds

Historical use in the High Weald:

Today's Use:

Meadows and Heathland

Historical use in the High Weald:

Today's Use: