

Question: Caterpillars make a case around them so that they can change into a butterfly. What is the case called?

Answer: Cocoon or chrysalis

Question: What is the most common plant found on a heathland?

Answer: Heather

Question: What is the first name of this common butterfly? brown

Answer: Meadow

Question: Name one animal found in woodland that can be called a bellyfoot.?

Answer: Snail or slug

Question: Why is dead wood important?

Answer: It provides food and homes for insects and minibeasts

Question: Name two insects that help pollinate flowers.

Answer: Bee, butterfly, moth, fly, wasp, ant

Question: What bug is also called a stinkbug?

Answer: Shield bug

Question: What is an invertebrate?

Answer: An animal without a backbone

Question: Where do plants get energy?

Answer: The sun

Question: What are animals that eat only plants called?

Answer: Herbivores

Question: In a food chain what are the plants known as?

Answer: Producers

Ivy Spidy

Question: What are animals that eat only meat sometimes called?

Answer: Carnivores

Ivy Spidy

Question: A badger eats worms and berries, in a food chain what would we call an animal that eats both meat and fruit?

Answer: Omnivores

Ivy Spidy

Question: Name two animals that are nocturnal.

Answer: Fox, badger, bat, hedgehog, owl, woodlouse, dormice, centipede, millipede, moth, lacewing

Ivy Spidy

Question: What lives inside cuckoo spit?

Answer: Froghopper larvae

Ivy Spidy

Question: What do aphids eat?

Answer: Sap from plants

Ivy Spidy

Draw a deer footprint.

Ivy Spidy

Question: What is plantation woodland?

Answer: Woodland that has been planted by people

Ivy Spidy

Question: What flowering plants are known indicators of ancient woodland?

Answer: Wood anemone, wild garlic, wood sorrel, bluebell

Ivy Spidy

Question: How do woodlice breathe?

Answer: Through gills on their underside

Ivy Spidy

Question: Where do foxes live?

Answer: Underground in dens

Ivy Spidy

Question: Where do rabbits live?

Answer: Underground in burrows, a network is called a warren

Ivy Spidy

Question: Where do badgers live?

Answer: Underground in a badger set

Ivy Spidy

Question: What is a squirrel's home called?

Answer: A drey

Ivy Spidy

Question: Which side of a tree does moss grow best?

Answer: The north, as it is shadier and stays damper for longer

Ivy Spidy

Question: Name two eight-legged creatures.

Answer: Spider and harvestman

Ivy Spidy

Draw a harvestman.

Ivy Spidy

Draw an ant.

Ivy Spidy

Draw a spider.

Ivy Spidy

Question: What is the missing tree name in this poem?

_____ before the ash and we're sure to get a splash
Ash before the _____ and we're sure to get a soak

Answer: Oak

Question: What are the missing rhymes in this poem about firewood?

Ash green or ash brown, fit for a queen with a golden _____
Ash green or ash _____ a king may warm his slippers by

Answer: Crown, dry

Question: What is a seed of an oak tree called?

Answer: An acorn

Ivy Spidy

Question: Which has longer antennae a grasshopper or cricket?

Answer: Cricket

Ivy Spidy

Question: What tree sometimes has red berries, is evergreen and has prickly leaves?

Answer: Holly

Ivy Spidy

Question: Ants have 3 parts to their bodies -, a head, a thorax, but what is the third part called?

Answer: Abdomen

Ivy Spidy

Question: What do we name the management of woods when the trees are cut down low and allowed to re-grow for 10 years or more?

Answer: Coppicing

Ivy Spidy

Question: Which woodland flowering plant grows from a bulb and has a blue flower?

Answer: Bluebell

Ivy Spidy

Question: Rhododendron is a foreign plant that we brought here in Victorian times, it is sometimes found in woodlands. Why is it a problem plant?

Answer: It grows fast and blocks out the lights for other plants, it is toxic so animals cannot eat it, and where there are too many rhododendrons, there will not be much food for wildlife

Question: Which tree would you find a conker on?

Answer: A horse chestnut

Ivy Spidy

Question: What is Britain's only poisonous snake called?

Answer: Adder

Ivy Spidy

Question: Name two tree seeds that are spread in the wind.

Answer: Birch, ash, sycamore, Scot's pine, lime

Ivy Spidy

Question: What plant do blackberries grow on?

Answer: Bramble

Ivy Spidy

Question: What do we call a tree that is not evergreen, but loses its leaves in the winter?

Answer: Deciduous

Ivy Spidy

Question: What do we call a six-legged animal?

Answer: An insect

Ivy Spidy